- (3) Delivery periods are extended appropriately in the event of force majeure or other unforeseeable events (e.g. operational disruptions, material shortages, delays by suppliers or transport disruptions).
- (4) The customer may withdraw from the contract if, after expiry of the non-binding delivery period, the customer has granted us a reasonable additional period of at least 14 days and that period has expired without delivery.

§ 6 Transfer of risk and shipping

- (1) Delivery is at the customer's risk.
- (2) Risk passes to the customer when the goods are handed over to the carrier.
- (3) This also applies to partial deliveries and carriage-paid deliveries.

§ 7 Retention of title

- (1) The goods supplied remain our property until all claims arising from the business relationship have been paid in full.
- (2) The customer is entitled to resell the goods in the ordinary course of business. The customer hereby assigns to us the claims arising from such resale.
